Worshipful Master's Message

Brothers All:

Well, January has flown by and hello February. Much needed Lodge projects are in the process. It's something I enjoy doing and I welcome all the help we can get – the more hands, the better.

Our installation on the 13th of last month went well and the ceremony makes us all feel proud to be Masons. Thanks again to the Eastern Star ladies for helping us celebrate with a great meal.

I am proud to be in the East again and one of my hopes is that many of you will take the challenge to attend our brotherhood meetings and other events in our Lodge.

Our Junior Warden has some new ideas for his delicious meals and would welcome your ideas and for what you would like to see on the table. When you do come to these events, bring a friend or other family members. Everyone is welcome.

If you need a ride, can't drive at night, or for whatever reason, give one of us a call and we'll be happy to give you a lift. I look forward to seeing you at Lodge!

∴ Mike Hutzler

Harbor City No. 318 Senior Warden's Message

My Brothers, we have been holding ritual practice every Wednesday night at 6:30 pm, in preparation for our upcoming MM Degree on Saturday January 27th. I want to thank all of the Brothers who are participating on this degree team. We also have one candidate who is working on his EA proficiency. In addition, there are several other potential candidates who have been invited to join us for dinner before our Stated meetings. I encourage the Brethren to engage with each of these potential members and make them feel welcome. This is a great opportunity for these men to get to know us and for us to get to know them.
R:W: Jim Demenkow, Senior Warden

Push yourself, because no one else is going to do it for you.

Harbor City No. 318 Junior Warden's Message

My Brothers,

What a pleasure it is to be with brothers in unity! Just a couple quick examples of that unity can be found by just a random visit to the lodge recently. I wasn't expecting anyone there, but several brothers were doing maintenance on the lodge. Our lodge practices too are generally lively and fun outside of the excellent instruction. In short, I'm saying that our lodge thrives when brothers are together. If you ever seek that unity, reach out to a brother and it's yours. Whether it's Masonic instruction for a new brother, lodge maintenance or you just want to hang out, the opportunity is just a phone call away. I've got some exciting plans for meals this year. As I am a big YouTube recipe enthusiast, I'd like to introduce you to one of the sources for this year's menu. If you search "Josh Weissman" on YouTube and check out his channel, I plan on doing recipes from his "but cheaper" recipe list. Check it out and let me know if you have any requests!

Bro John Allen, Junior Warden

Be yourself; everyone else is already taken.

Harbor City No. 318 Secretary's Notes

Greetings my Brother's! I hope you and your Families are doing well.

The year started off great with a terrific Installation of Lodge Officers and a Master Mason Degree on January 27th. Congratulations to our newest Master Mason Brother Robert Galler!

Please come out to our Stated Communications and events and show your support.

Have a great February and Happy Valentines Day to all!

May the Good Lord watch over you and your Families.

Respectfully and Fraternally, R:W: John Paniccia, Secretary 2024

Harbor City No. 318 Chaplin's Message

First, let me apologize for this short column. I'm typing it on my cell phone from my hospital bed and all my research data is at home. Our prayers go forth for those within our Fraternity who may be facing adversities in this coming year. Be it incumbent upon us to support these Brothers in their time of need; especially W Wade, David, and Greg and their families.

"Do what you can, with what you have, where you are." (Theodore Roosevelt)

Florida Masonic Home

Did you know the Florida Masonic Home has 74 residents in their care?
